On Leave

Marja Harmonen will be away April 15-17 while attending the secretarial school that is to be held in Metsätalo for the Institute's departmental secretaries. In addition, she is sharpening her talents as an English translator. Is the rumor true that she is going to start studying forest economics so that she can qualify as the official translator of the Economics Department?

Joke of the Week

Summer Saturdays are counted as working days if you are on vacation.
